17.Skill development:

The majority of the students after passing their examinations and obtaining the degree of law would prefer to go for the profession of Advocacy. Law is professional degree and requires various professional skills to become a successful lawyer. Navjeevan Law College, always try to give them a good theoretical knowledge as well as the practical knowledge during completion of their syllabus. Moot Court is the activity by which the student can learn the actual knowledge of Drafting, Pleading and Conveyance. From the first year of their admission they are motivated to participate in the various inter collegiate Moot Court Competitions, Debate, Elocutions which improves their vocabulary and boost their confidence. For their improvement the college also used to arrange Seminars, special guest lectures, Workshops, and visits the institutions like Supreme Court, High Court, District Court, Police Station, Central jail, Forensic Lab, etc. 18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

Basically the teaching learning process for the Law Course is in English as the syllabus and the examinations are conducted by University in the English only. The college is having adequate no. of law books of all the concerned subjects in the regional language i.e. in Marathi . the students who came from the rural areas are being taught in Marathi/ Hindi language along with English. This will help the students to understand the provisions of Law and the concept smoothly. In COVID-19 pandemic the online lectures are conducted by the teachers and the special guest lectures, Virtual lecture series are conducted for giving some extra to the students during this Lockdown. The college is also organizing various Online Certificate Course of which one is already completed on 'Advocacy Skills And Professional Ethics'.

19. Focus on Outcome based education (OBE): Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

The outcomes of the LL.B. and B.A.LL.B. Course are well defined by the university while drafting their syllabus. The college always focus on the outcomes and provide the education to fulfill all the norms of the university. Generally speaking the college always try hard to enabled the students to explore and learn the detailed laws and the procedure pertaining to the specific field of study and to analyze it to tackle the legal and social problems of the society. Obtaining the good marks in the final examinations is no doubt one of the outcome but the application of their mind, their ethical principles, their responsibilities toward the society are at par with their studies. They are also motivated for the advanced knowledge through the legal research. The best outcome of the law college is well described in our VISION And MISSION "To offer to society, makers and upholders of law, instilling into them virtues of Integrity ,Loyalty and Social Values" "To provide quality legal education, meet the global challenges and to enhance the standard of legal education along with creating legal awareness in society and increasing the participation of people, particularly of the rural and economically disadvantaged people"

20.Distance education/online education:

Law Course is a full time course and thus the students have to complete it by attending lectures and practical physically. It is not possible to complete it by distance education. To some extent the blend of physical and online education is possible, and it was tried during the COVID-19 pandemic. The online mode is useful for reaching maximum no. of students. 1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

Our college follows the Academic Calendar issued by the University at the beginning of the academic year. It provides a schedule for teaching, examination, conclusion of semester and vacations. Within the same time framework, the college also prepares its own Academic Calendar.

The IQAC conducts meetings to ensure smooth implementation of the activities as scheduled. For the purpose of conducting Continuous Internal Evaluation, teachers prepare their schedule of teaching, class tests, assignments, viva, presentations, case study, project etc

The final exams of are scheduled and conducted by the University while LL.B. I & B.A. LL.B. I. Semester End Exams & CAP are conducted by the College. Results of every exam as analyzed and corrective measures are discussed at the departmental /institutional level and implemented by the concerned Teachers. The information of CIE is provided to all through the College Prospectus, Website and Counseling sessions are also organized.

Any change in the Academic Calendar due to any unavoidable situation, the same is communicated immediately to all the concerned persons through different modes. As the academic calendar is planned, events of various committees are interspaced to optimize holistic development of students though Continuous Internal Evaluation.

3.3 - Extension Activities

3.3.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community sensitizing students to social issues for their holistic development. Our vision & Mission especially deals with the contribution of Law College towards the Society. It includes the development of the students & to inculcate into them the values of morality and social responsibility. The National Service Scheme Unit has played a tremendous role in this regard that various activities are conducted by the Law College Students includes the rallies, the door to door campaign, street plays on the topics including the health, the environment, Swacch Bharat Abhiyan, water saving children's nourishment, polio immunization awareness, blood donation, Covid -19 vaccination drive, road safety awareness programmes. The Student Welfare Department always tries to work for the holistic development of the students by arranging the seminars, workshops, cultural activities, virtual lecture series and the certificate courses to provide them extra knowledge while completing their law curriculum. Students also contribute for the Legal Aid & awareness amongst people especially in rural areas who are quite ignorant their rights. Navjeevan Law College is having a active

Legal Aid Clinic where any person can seek the free legal aid and assistance. The Coordinator with group of students entertains such persons with all sympathy.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

At the end of every academic year the Navjeevan Law College does performance based evaluation of Teaching and Non Teaching Staff by two modes. The first is called "PBAS [performance based appraisal system" and the second is called "annual performance report". The PBAS provides a feedback of the faculty member. It helps them in understanding the changing needs of students. All teaching faculty member fill the prescribed format of PBAS for self-appraisal. This system encourages them to make excellent performance in teaching and learning. The institution has PBAS for assessment of teaching staff. The appraisal report is based on the annual performance of the employee on the basis of their academic, research and other extra-Curricular activities. This format [PBAS] is filled by the employee in a given prescribed performance, which includes all the above set related to points and sub-points. The performance appraisal report is also been taken from the Non-Teaching staff to be submitted the principal. It is based upon Job Knowledge, Technical Skills, Work Quality, Work Consistency Cooperation, Initiative, Work Relations, Punctually, Attendance, Communication Skills, Over all Rating etc.

6.4.3 - Institutional strategies for mobilization of funds and the optimal utilization of resources

The College receives funds from UGC, BCUD, DBT, and other funding agencies for academic and infrastructural development. The main financial source of Navjeevan Law College is the collection of fees from the admitted students. As Navjeevan Law College is having one grant-in-Aid division the salaries of the teaching and non teaching staff of the granted division are made by the higher education department of the Maharashtra State Government. The staff on the Granted basis is not adequate to teach the divisions and thus the college has to appoint the visiting and clock hour basis teachers. Every year for updating t library, payment of various subscriptions, software, purchasing of text and reference books adequate amount is reserved. The staff and students participating in various conferences, workshops, competitions, and other research purposes college extend the full financial support to them. For maintenance of computers hardware and software and the office equipment like Xerox, fax, printer, and scanner, CC TV, LCD Projector etc. the amount is reserved and paid accordingly. The amount received from the university towards NSS, SWO, QIP, Legal Aid, is separately deposited in a bank account proper audit is made of these funds

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities (within 200 words).

The college is committed to provide an inclusive environment with regional, cultural, linguistic social and communal harmony in the college, which can be understood with the initiatives taken by various committees and cells of the college. Every year college organizes the NAVLAW FESTIVAL where the students perform their artistic skills through dance competitions, , skits, songs, poetries, debates, etc. NLC firmly believes in unity in diversity and tries to instill this value in our students. The students are encouraged to respect different religions, languages and cultures. We feel that the college is our second home and all the faculty and staff are like family members. Our students celebrate different festivals with joy and enthusiasm which helps them to implement social and religious harmony. Teacher's Day, NAV-LAW FEST every year where the faculty members, staff and students share happy moments and bond with each other. With a similar agenda in mind many other committee like the NSS committee, legal aid cell, regularly conduct sensitization drive wherein they make the socially and economically backward classes aware of their rights and provide appropriate relief to them when necessary. College organizes blood donation camp. This also creates an inclusive environment in the college and society.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The college has taken following measures and activities for for sensitization of the same. Imparting clinical legal aid education through organizing the legal aid program, focusing on child rights, women rights, rights of labor, providing information regarding 7/12 extract and agricultural laws and its provisions. We have various Cell and Committees functioning for the same. Every year an orientation programme is conducted for newly inducted students in the UG course at the college to educate them about the objectives of legal education, building socially relevant lawyers. The college celebrates Constitution Day by essays writing competitions, debates, which receive active participation from the students. Academic programs like seminars, conferences, expert talks which enrich the students about these above-mentioned aspects. The college provide assistance to send the students for moot court competitions on various contemporary and legal issues and topics.

Navjeevan Law College organizes various forms of legal aid and legal awareness camps to impart awareness of such issues. The crosscutting issues like gender equality, environment sustainability, human values, professional ethics, social responsibility find ample space when it comes to applying them positively into the curriculum. The college celebrates Swachata Abhiyan under N.S.S. and other related activities.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

Navjeevan Law College was established in 1999 with an objective to provide quality legal education and best advocates to the society. The institution has recently celebrated its 23rd Anniversary and very soon will celebrate its silver jubilee. The vision of the institute is to create high values and standards for the improvement of community living and to create academic environment conducive for the holistic development of the students. Our institute is committed to provide quality and do excel in all activities in teaching, research, training and extension. To achieve the goals set by our institution, we have adopted some villages under the scheme of NSS, Legal Aid etc.

To build a nation of youth as morally responsible, the college organizes and conducted several activities to build and promote an environment for ethical, cultural, and spur values among the students and staff. The college and its teacher and staff jointly celebrate the cultural and regional festivals, like fresher's party, teacher's day, and farewell program, rally, oath, tree plantation, Swami Vivekanand Jayanti as National Youth day, Women's day, Yoga day, sports day etc.

Our College is committed and taking continuous efforts to excel in every filed and provide best to the society.

3.3 - Extension Activities

3.3.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community sensitizing students to social issues for their holistic development. Our vision & Mission especially deals with the contribution of Law College towards the Society. It includes the development of the students & to inculcate into them the values of morality and social responsibility. The National Service Scheme Unit has played a tremendous role in this regard that various activities are conducted by the Law College Students includes the rallies, the door to door campaign, street plays on the topics including the health, the environment, Swacch Bharat Abhiyan, water saving children's nourishment, polio immunization awareness, blood donation, Covid -19 vaccination drive, road safety awareness programmes. The Student Welfare Department always tries to work for the holistic development of the students by arranging the seminars, workshops, cultural activities, virtual lecture series and the certificate courses to provide them extra knowledge while completing their law curriculum. Students also contribute for the Legal Aid & awareness amongst people especially in rural areas who are quite ignorant their rights. Navjeevan Law College is having a active Legal Aid Clinic where any person can seek the free legal aid and assistance. The Coordinator with group of students entertains such persons with all sympathy.

5.4 - Alumni Engagement

5.4.1 - There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services

Alumni association having the aim to build a bridge between college life and the career life. This bridge helps the fresher, to face the challenges of professional world, competitive world. The Alumni Association of Navjeevan Law College is very active and though it is not registered one but it is always working with various objects. The collective support of and mentoring by our alumni community and contributions of their time, and expertise will enable us to continue our pursuit in achieving excellence in education. our Alumni are invited for sharing their experience and knowledge with new comers.. The Alumni also shared the opportunities available in the legal and other fields also on the whatsapp group. The Alumni Association arranged every year the Alumni meet Though no monitory contribution has been made from the Alumni but their expertise knowledge is greater than any financial assistance. The college contributes the funds for all these activities. There is always Alumni contribution in the development of the institution particularly in the field of placement as an internship or junior ship in lawyer office, legal firms, banking and other sector of the corporate governance.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

At the end of every academic year the Navjeevan Law College does performance based evaluation of Teaching and Non Teaching Staff by two modes. The first is called "PBAS [performance based appraisal system" and the second is called "annual performance report". The PBAS provides a feedback of the faculty member. It helps them in understanding the changing needs of students. All teaching faculty member fill the prescribed format of PBAS for self-appraisal. This system encourages them to make excellent performance in teaching and learning. The institution has PBAS for assessment of teaching staff. The appraisal report is based on the annual performance of the employee on the basis of their academic, research and other extra-Curricular activities. This format [PBAS] is filled by the employee in a given prescribed performance, which includes all the above set related to points and sub-points. The performance appraisal report is also been taken from the Non-Teaching staff to be submitted the principal. It is based upon Job Knowledge, Technical Skills, Work Quality, Work Consistency Cooperation, Initiative, Work Relations, Punctually, Attendance, Communication Skills, Over all Rating etc.

6.4.3 - Institutional strategies for mobilization of funds and the optimal utilization of resources

The College receives funds from UGC, BCUD, DBT, and other funding agencies for academic and infrastructural development. The main financial source of Navjeevan Law College is the collection of fees from the admitted students. As Navjeevan Law College is having one grant-in-Aid division the salaries of the teaching and non teaching staff of the granted division are made by the higher education department of the Maharashtra State Government. The staff on the Granted basis is not adequate to teach the divisions and thus the college has to appoint the visiting and clock hour basis teachers. Every year for updating t library, payment of various subscriptions, software, purchasing of text and reference books adequate amount is reserved. The staff and students participating in various conferences, workshops, competitions, and other research purposes college extend the full financial support to them. For maintenance of computers hardware and software and the office equipment like Xerox, fax, printer, and scanner, CC TV, LCD Projector etc. the amount is reserved and paid accordingly. The amount received from the university towards NSS, SWO, QIP, Legal Aid, is separately deposited in a bank account proper audit is made of these funds

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Navjeevan Law College, Nashik believes in "Green and clean Campus for All". The NSS/SWO and other forums in the College have played a prominent role in this by organizing various cleanliness drives, awareness programs, conducting tree plantations and various other activities. College has banned plastic use in the campus.

Solid waste management- College has ensured to keep minimum one dry and one wet dustbin in every office, classroom, moot court hall, seminar hall, library, stair case, language lab, computer lab, porch, precincts, garden and other places.

Liquid waste management- The liquid waste released from the college reaches the sewage. Waste water is used for gardening. The college has proper drainage system for disposing off the waste water.

E-Waste Management: The equipment which cannot be refurbished is disassembled and segregated to send to recyclable units. E-waste generated in the campus is collected through the maintenance team and is safely disposed of through vendors.

Waste Recycling& Reuse System: The paper waste generated is generally used by the creative team of our college.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities (within 200 words).

The college is committed to provide an inclusive environment with regional, cultural, linguistic social and communal harmony in the college, which can be understood with the initiatives taken by various committees and cells of the college. Every year college organizes the NAVLAW FESTIVAL where the students perform their artistic skills through dance competitions, , skits, songs, poetries, debates, etc. NLC firmly believes in unity in diversity and tries to instill this value in our students. The students are encouraged to respect different religions, languages and cultures. We feel that the college is our second home and all the faculty and staff are like family members. Our students celebrate different festivals with joy and enthusiasm which helps them to implement social and religious harmony. Teacher's Day, NAV-LAW FEST every year where the faculty members, staff and students share happy moments and bond with each other. With a similar agenda in mind many other committee like the NSS committee, legal aid cell, regularly conduct sensitization drive wherein they make the socially and economically backward classes aware of their rights and provide appropriate relief to them when necessary. College organizes blood donation camp. This also creates an inclusive environment in the college and society.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The college has taken following measures and activities for for sensitization of the same. Imparting clinical legal aid education through organizing the legal aid program, focusing on child rights, women rights, rights of labor, providing information regarding 7/12 extract and agricultural laws and its provisions. We have various Cell and Committees functioning for the same. Every year an orientation programme is conducted for newly inducted students in the UG course at the college to educate them about the objectives of legal education, building socially relevant lawyers. The college celebrates Constitution Day by essays writing competitions, debates, which receive active participation from the students. Academic programs like seminars, conferences, expert talks which enrich the students about these above-mentioned aspects. The college provide assistance to send the students for moot court competitions on various contemporary and legal issues and topics.

Navjeevan Law College organizes various forms of legal aid and legal awareness camps to impart awareness of such issues. The cross-cutting issues like gender equality, environment sustainability, human values, professional ethics, social responsibility find ample space when it comes to applying them positively into the curriculum. The college celebrates Swachata Abhiyan under N.S.S. and other related activities.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust within 200 words

Navjeevan Law College was established in 1999 with an objective to provide quality legal education and best advocates to the society. The institution has recently celebrated its 23rd Anniversary and very soon will celebrate its silver jubilee. The vision of the institute is to create high values and standards for the improvement of community living and to create academic environment conducive for the holistic development of the students. Our institute is committed to provide quality and do excel in all activities in teaching, research, training and extension. To achieve the goals set by our institution, we have adopted some villages under the scheme of NSS, Legal Aid etc.

To build a nation of youth as morally responsible, the college organizes and conducted several activities to build and promote an environment for ethical, cultural, and spur values among the students and staff. The college and its teacher and staff jointly celebrate the cultural and regional festivals, like fresher's party, teacher's day, and farewell program, rally, oath, tree plantation, Swami Vivekanand Jayanti as National Youth day, Women's day, Yoga day, sports day etc.

Our College is committed and taking continuous efforts to excel in every filed and provide best to the society.
